

Littlest Cowboy Invades The Rodeo

(Staff photos by Bill Baies)

RONNIE BERSERON, who's almost 2 years old, doesn't let a little thing like size stop him from taking a closer look at the Davie Rodeo. Left, like all good cowboys do, Ronnie sizes up the action and practically climbs the fence to take part in the fun. At right, oops — the 'deputy sheriff' orders him out of town and into safer quarters in the stands. Below, Ronnie seems to be thinking all a cowboy really needs is a slug from his favorite bottle — of milk. The heck with those smelly old horses, anyway!

Getting A Good Look

Pulled From The Game

Nothing Like A Stiff Belt . . .